Move on

I can’t

Why not

I feel comfortable here

I thought you wanted to go to the afterlife

I’m too scared

I’m sorry, I know how you feel

Why don’t you move on

I want to help people

Don’t you want to be free too

The reason I can’t leave is because I feel unfinished, I need to help everyone to move on

You’ll never be able to do that, you’re stuck here

At least let me help you

Not before you help yourself

I’ll stay with you until you move on

You don’t have to, you aren’t gaining anything

I don’t care

Stop talking to yourself
